Introduction to LeopardClan

LeopardClan:

Leader: Leopardstar (Leopardclaw): golden she-cat with a distinctive spotted pelt

Deputy: (I will take requests for deputies)

Medicine Cat: (any cat can be a medicine cat; in the canon series, there can be more than one medicine cat in a Clan)

Medicine Cat Apprentice: (any cat can be a medicine cat apprentice)

Warriors: (any cat can be a warrior)

1. Hawkeyes (Leopardclaw): dark ginger she-cat with amber eyes; has sensitive ears, allowing her to hear things that may be too quiet for other cats; mate: none; kits: none

2. (warrior)

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Apprentices: (any cat can be an apprentice)

1. Mousepaw (Leopardclaw): dark gray tom with white paws and light green eyes; mate: none

2.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Queens: (any cat can be a queen, provided they are a she-cat :3)

Redfur (Leopardclaw): middle-moon (middle-aged) ginger she-cat with amber eyes; mate: none (he had left her long ago to be a kittypet); kits: Hawkeyes and Rosekit

Elders: (any cat can be an elder)

Crowscar (Leopardclaw): dark brown tabby tom with a scar across his right eye; has dark green eyes; crabby; mate: none; kits: none

Kits: (any cat can be a kit)

Rosekit (Leopardclaw): light ginger tabby she-cat with dark blue eyes; mother: Redfur; sister: Hawkeyes; father: unknown (he left the Clan to be a kittypet)

StarClan Cats: (cats that have passed away can be in StarClan and give the living cats prophecies)

Rainpelt (Leopardclaw): blue-gray tom with light blue eyes; mate: Mistyleaf (she's in a different Clan, out of this roleplay unless it says otherwise); kits: none

Dark Forest Cats: (cats that have passed away can be in the Dark Forest and teach cats things in their dreams, but not come back to the living world)

Featherstar (Leopardclaw): blue-gray tabby she-cat with dark blue eyes; mate: Scorchheart (also in the Dark Forest; won't be in this roleplay unless it says otherwise); kits: none

Rules

1. Keep it PG-13.

2. No killing other cats unless you two discuss it in a PM.

3. No God Mode; your cat cannot be a Mary Sue or Gary Poo or something.

4. No rainbow cats (meaning, no cats with unrealistically-colored fur, eyes, wings, etc. are allowed). For cats who have already been accepted, I will confirm if your cat can have that specific color of appearance.

5. The first rule to roleplaying: Hate the character, not the person. Do not bully a person; bully the cat if that is your cat's personality.

6. No supercats; your cat cannot fly, go invisible, have blizzard, fire, etc. powers, etc.

7. To be the deputy, you must be the first one to comment that you want that rank; afterwards, the deputy will be that same cat for the rest of the roleplay unless that person leaves the roleplay (and states it to the author through comment that they are leaving deputy position) or that cat dies. Then, there will be an announcement for a new deputy position in a new chapter.

7.5 UPDATE ON DEPUTY RULE:
If you want to be deputy and the current deputy has not roleplayed for more than 3 weeks, you may be an understudy/ co-deputy (not sure what term yet).

8. There are NO TIME LIMITS for inactivity. You may keep your characters for as long as you want to stay in the roleplay. :)

9. Prophecies will be created when there is a major event planned by the author of this roleplay (AKA Leopardclaw, AKA me)

10. Ceremonies will be in new chapters. If a mentor or medicine cat wants to give a ceremony to their apprentice, then they may do so in a comment to the leader (AKA the author, AKA Leopardclaw, AKA Leopardstar)

11. Visits to the Moonstream (Moonstone/Moonpool) can be done in the ceremonies roleplaying spot for medicine cats and their apprentices when needed. (Meaning, when a ceremony chapter for medicine cats and their apprentices comes up, they can roleplay going to the Moonstream)

12. You can have more than one cat.

13. You cannot control another person's cat without permission.

14. Do not pretend to be someone else's cat.

15. Questions for this roleplay may be asked in the FAQs page. (I will update it when I can)

16. Cats can die, but ask someone before killing off their cat or you can have your cat due to badgers or something.

17. Medicine cats CAN have a mate and kits.

18. The leader may have a mate and kits.

19. The deputy may have a mate and kits.

20. Apprentices still cannot have a mate or kits.

FAQs

Questions can be asked here, and they will be typed into this page for others to read.

Cat List (Moved to this chapter)

If you have a question about the roleplay, please ask and tag my username so I can find your question in my notifications as it will have me mentioned, thus making it easier for me to know I need to reply to your comment.

Older roleplayers who were tagged here again: I moved the Cat List here so it's easier for me to add people to the list without switching between chapters.

Newer roleplayers: I will assign mentors for apprentices based on who I think is mostly active in this roleplay.

Everyone: There is now a position for Substitute Substitute (yes, twice) Deputy because there needs to be someone to fill in the actual Substitute Deputy when the Substitute Deputy isn't active to substitute for the ACTUAL Deputy.
Until BrightfrostInTheDark and VeraSyn let me know if they still want to be in this roleplay, the Deputy and Substitute Deputy are not being removed. Also, the LEADER rank is now OPEN for anyone who wants to be leader. If you want a cat to be leader, just mention me in a comment on this chapter that you want to be leader. If two or more people comment at the same time, I'll choose the one that's first on the list on my notifications.

Without further ado, here are the instructions for making a cat followed by the Allegiances:

In the comments, put the following to enter a cat:

Name:

Personality:

Appearance:

Mate:

Kits:

Rank: (if you would like to be a deputy, please comment here) (if you want to be any other rank, please put it here; loner, rogue, and kittypet are also accepted)

Backstory (optional):

Extra (optional):

If your cat is an apprentice, please tell me what you want the apprentice's warrior name to be and if you have a warrior cat in the roleplay who is going to be your mentor, please put that cat's name in the "Mentor" spot.

If your cat is a medicine cat apprentice, please consult with the medicine cat about your full medicine cat name.

If your cat is a warrior AND a mentor, and have an apprentice cat in the roleplay, please state that apprentice's name in the "Apprentice" spot.

Cat List (because I was tired of having to switch back and forth between chapters)

LEADER (OPEN AGAIN)

DEPUTY Brightfrost (BrightfrostInTheDark) Birman she-cat with a black face and blue eyes (profile picture)

Old Roleplayers: You Still Roleplaying?

To the following people who created a cat for this LeopardClan roleplay by me, Leopardclaw: Do you still want to be in this roleplay? If so, tell me you do want to stay. If not, please tell me you don't want to be in the roleplay anymore so I can remove your cat and username from the list.

Here are the list of people who I want to respond to this in the comments along with their rank, cat name, and cat description:

Camp Description

Leader's Den: inside of a standing hollow log with a sturdy branch sticking out of the top (the Hightree)

Elder's Den: underneath a juniper berry bush to the left of the leader's den

Nursery: hidden inside of a small cave within a giant boulder, to the right of the leader's den

Medicine Den: a raised cliff with flat stones alongside it to climb on top of in order to get to it, has a small waterfall in the corner of the small cave, to the left of the nursery

Apprentice's Den: inside of an abandoned badger den, has moss for bedding, to the right of the elder's den

Warrior's Den: underneath a fallen tree in the ground, across from the leader's den

Fresh-kill pile: in the middle of the camp

Dirtplace: behind the elder's den

Burial place: outside of the main camp, in a secluded area of the forest

Specific Areas of the Territory

Shaded Clearing: an area where the cats practice battle tactics

Moonstream: the place where potential leaders and medicine cats with their apprentices go to share tongues with StarClan, located south of the main camp and past the Shaded Clearing, the stream runs from Twolegplace to a giant lake far away from LeopardClan

Fox den: located near the Moonstream, not known if abandoned or not

New General Roleplay Section

This is the new general roleplay section with the same camp description, which I am posting here. Please use this roleplay section for the rest of the roleplay. Ceremo.nies will be in their respective chapters.

Roleplay #2: Hollowtree

It is Hollowtree (Halloween) and the cats are claw-or-fresh-killing (trick or treating).

The cats can go from den to den for treats and go to the center of the camp to eat them.

The cats in the dens are:
1. Leopardstar in the leader's den
2. Crowscar in the elder's den
3. Hawkeyes in the warriors den
4. Redfur and Rosekit in the nursery

The apprentices and warriors can go as well as the deputy and medicine cats. Kits can go, too.

This lasts until moonhigh.

LeopardClan Roleplay

Roleplay here.

Clan Games: Cliches

Okay to add something new to this roleplay, let's add games. Thank you, berserkbook for the idea even though you never told me; I just got the idea from you.

The first game is Cliches. The goal of this game is to make the most cliche warrior name/Clan name/prophecy ever, depending on the topic given, and then I will put the names on here.

Topic: Warrior Name

Challenge:
Comment the most cliche cat name in a fanfiction that you have read on Wattpad.

How To:
Do not mention the fanfiction or the author, but put the most cliche cat name that you have read in a Warriors fanfiction on Wattpad.

Restrictions
1. You must be in this roleplay to participate in the Clan Games.

2. You must have read the name in a Warriors fanfiction on Wattpad .

3. The fanfiction cannot be your own.

4. The fanfiction must be a story that is completed.

5. The fanfiction cannot be a spoof (such as "The Worst Warriors Fanfiction Ever").

6. There are as many spots as there are roleplayers on this Warriors roleplay.

Awards:

1st: First place gets to rename Leopardstar for a whole roleplay event of their choice. (It must be a roleplay event that is active or be a future idea.)

2nd: Second place place gets to give the next roleplay event (such as a badger attack on the Clan).

3rd: Third place gets a choice of one of their cats ranking up to warrior or apprentice.

Other: Every other place gets to have a Clan breakfast of waffles, pancakes, toast, cereal, oatmeal, etc. for the next roleplay event. (Everyone who won the other places can join them.)

Names
xXCatsAREMiraclesXx /ThatLittleNerdyKit: Dawnheart (hey. that's one of my cats xD)

ClarinetWarrior : Fluffysparkle
Hozuki_Yatomashi :
BrightfrostInTheDark : Silvermoon
VeraSyn :
RP_Master : Starlight

Heronspark: Angelkit

Ashstar_Of_Ashclan: Pinecone

Well, since the two who didn't answer didn't respond ever, I guess that means...IT'S TIME FOR THE WINNERS TO BE ANNOUNCED!

In third place, the person who gets to rank up one of their cats to a warrior or apprentice...we have Heronspark with Angelkit! Heronspark gets to rank up Aspenpaw to Aspen(suffix of your choice)! Good job!

In second place, the person who gets to give the next roleplay event...is ClarinetWarrior! PM me the event and I'll add it to the roleplay. Good job!

And the moment all of you have been waiting for...in first place, the person who gets to rename Leopardstar for one roleplay event...ACTUALLY HANG ON...LET'S MAKE THIS MORE INTERESTING. THE NAME CHOSEN WILL BE LEOPARDSTAR'S NAME FOR THE REST OF THE BOOK! Now without further ado........wait for it.....just be patient.....don't worry; I'm almost there.....we have...Ashstar_Of_AshClan with Pinecone! PM me the name and I'll change Leopardstar's name to that name for rest of the book (the one that ClarinetWarrior is choosing). Good job!

Congratulations everyone, but wait! We have runner-ups!

In sixth place, we have ThatLittleNerdyKit with Dawnheart (I used that name in my fanfiction xD)

In fifth place, we have BrightfrostInTheDark with Silvermoon and finally...in fourth place...we have RP_Master with Starlight!

Congratulations again!

BUT WAIT! THERE'S EVEN MORE!

I mentioned that there were only 3 winners, but didn't tell you that there's a Game Twist with every game! The Game Twist this time was that everyone gets a reward! So without further ado...

6th place: renames Clan

5th place: the highest ranking of their cats has to be the medicine cat for the next event

4th place: gets to change one of their cats ranks to whatever they want (except for leader) for as long as they want it

Now that the Game Twist is explained, the runner-ups get their rewards!

ThatLittleNerdyKit gets to rename the Clan.

BrightfrostInTheDark's cat, Brightfrost, the deputy, has to be the medicine cat for the next event.

RP_Master gets to change one of their cats' ranks to whatever they want (except for leader) for as long as they want that rank.

FOR THE FINAL TIME, CONGRATULATIONS EVERYONE!

Now I need you to do some things:

Ashstar_Of_Ashclan: Rename Leopardstar by sending me a PM with the name

ClarinetWarrior: make the next event by sending me a PM with the event description (fox attack, leader loses a life, Gathering, StarClan doesn't respond, kittypets attack, etc.)

Heronspark: Choose a warrior name for Aspenpaw by commenting it

ThatLittleNerdyKit: Rename the Clan by sending me a PM

OH AND I ALMOST FORGOT ABOUT THE BREAKFAST PARTY FOR THE NEXT EVENT!

BrightfrostInTheDark, RP_Master, and ThatLittleNerdyKit have a breakfast party of waffles, pancakes, oatmeal, etc. for the next event (their cats do).

That is all!

Roleplay Episode 1: The First Day

It is dawn and some of the cats are up and about (awake). Other cats may sleep and be woken later on. The dawn patrol will be set by the deputy (BrightfrostInTheDark), Brightfrost.

The fresh-kill pile is low, so apprentices without mentors need a mentor! The warriors may speak with Leopardstar about arranging mentors with apprentices (in a short ceremony, a bit straying off the normal words due to time constraints of the day), and they may head out to hunt, learn battle tactics, learn the territory, etc.

If any cat needs the medicine cat, Clearpool (@SomeOther_Girl) will be around the camp somewhere.

LET'S GET MEOWING! :D
